❖ Especially Recommended

❖ RONA PONDICK: Pondick's greedy, needy mouth-balls (of cast aluminum or wax and dirt) are now strewn like fallen fruit under a silvery pear tree, or they're heaped in a corner. She patterns new fiberglass pillows and an actual mattress with insatiable infantile mantras ("I want I want I want"), and there's a hanging piece covered with fungoid red ears in a show titled collectively "tree head room." Through 10/25. Sidney Janis, 110 W 57th, 586-0110.
